2018 Another Country, Saint John's University, Collegeville, Minnesota curated by Elaine Rutherford, MFA, Professor, Art Department, Saint John's University, Alberta Whittle and Euan Gray at the Saint John's University Art Centre Alice R. Rogers Gallery and Target Gallery. Exhibition runs from March, 12th, 2018 until June, 3rd, 2018 with a gallery reception held on March, 15th, 2018.

This exhibition brings together twelve artists from distinct, ethnically and culturally diverse backgrounds, all born or currently living in Scotland. It assesses the historical and, at times negative, impact of Scottish colonialism on the United States, while at the same time tackling issues with contemporary migration, a complex subject with rapidly growing relevance in the current political climate. The work presented is personal as most of the artists are migrants themselves.

List of artists exhibiting in Another Country: Irineu Destourelles, Graham Fagen, Dawn Gavin, Andrew Gilbert, Euan Gray, Ricardo Guzman, Andrew Hairstans, Dana Hargrove, Birthe Jorgensen, Katherine Ka Yi Liu, Elaine Rutherford and Alberta Whittle

• University level service (representing the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences):

2020 -2022: Appointed by the Faculty Senate to serve on the administrator's evaluation committee.

Administrator Evaluation Committee: This committee shall consist of six members representing each College and the Library. This committee shall conduct and oversee evaluations of University administrators. The committee shall also develop procedures by which the faculty can participate in these evaluations. Further detail about policy and process, can be found in Part IV

Spring 2019: Art Around the World

Served on Art Around the World event hosted and organized by The Office of Global Initiatives on Wednesday, April 10th, in Taylor Center Room 230. I recruited 5 students from the Department of Fine Arts to assist me in 3 drawing and painting sessions between 9 a.m. – 4p.m. Over 60 participants (students, faculty and staff) representing 13 countries took part in the event. The art created was displayed in room 109, Administration Building.

2015 – 2018: Chair of Academic Standards Committee (standing committee of the Faculty Senate)

The Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate nominated Andrew Hairstans, Associate Professor of Fine Art as new Chair of Academic Standards Committee starting fall 2016

This committee shall consist of the Provost or a person appointed by him/her and faculty representatives from the academic Schools/Colleges and the Library appointed by the Rules Committee. In addition, non-voting, ex officio members of the committee shall include the Registrar, and the Faculty Athletic Representative to the national athletics governing body. This committee shall recommend policies to govern scholastic standards for the University, including admission to the University, continuation in residence, and graduation (cited: Auburn University Montgomery Faculty Handbook).

2015 – 2018: Faculty Welfare Committee (standing committee of the Faculty Senate)

This committee shall consist of two representatives from each School or College and the Library to be appointed by the Rules Committee. The President-Elect will serve as a voting member. The committee shall receive, originate, and consider suggestions concerning faculty welfare (cited: Auburn University Montgomery Faculty Handbook)

2012 – 2015: Rules committee (standing committee of Faculty Senate)

Served on the Rules Committee (standing committee of the Faculty Senate) representing the School of Liberal Arts (Three year appointment: August 2012 – May 2015)

The following quote from the Auburn University Montgomery faculty handbook highlights the function and responsibilities of the officer(s) serving on the Rules Committee:

Rules Committee: This committee shall consist of the President of the Faculty Senate, as Chair, President Elect, the Secretary, the Parliamentarian, President of the Staff Council, and six members elected by the Faculty Senate, one from each of the academic schools and the Library.

The term of each elected member shall be for three years with staggered terms. Elections shall be held at each May meeting of the Faculty Senate. All terms of committee members shall begin on June 1 and end on May 31 of designated years. Nominations shall be made from the floor and a vote taken by secret written ballot. A majority vote is required for election. All members of this committee must be members of the Faculty Senate at the time of their election.

An election to fill the unexpired term of an elected member shall be held at the first meeting of the Faculty Senate after the vacancy occurs. No elected member can succeed himself/herself as an elected member except when he or she is filling an unexpired term. This committee shall serve as the Senate Committee on committees. All questions concerning Faculty Senate procedures shall be referred to this committee, and shall recommend to the Faculty Senate the disposition to be made of any dispute concerning the operation of the Faculty Senate. It shall ensure that the unit representatives are duly elected and that no unit of the University is denied the representation to which it is entitled under these articles.

This committee should make periodic studies of the Faculty Senate with respect to its objectives and its role in faculty government and should recommend changes that should be made to enable the Faculty Senate to function more effectively.

2012 – 2015: Auburn University Montgomery Faculty Senate

Served on the Faculty Senate the executive body of the Faculty Council, representing the School of Liberal Arts (Three-year appointment: August 2012 – May 2015)

The following quote from the Auburn University Montgomery website highlights the function and responsibilities of the officer(s) serving on the Faculty Senate:

The Faculty Senate is responsible for interpreting the Faculty Constitution. It has the overall responsibility for preparation of ballots and management of the election of members of the Faculty Senate. It is responsible for establishing and abolishing committees, for taking action on and disposing of committee reports, and for reporting to the committees and the Faculty Council. It will decide on policy matters pertinent to the operation of the Faculty Council. It is responsible for keeping records of its activities. Non-current records of the Faculty Council, the Faculty Senate and its committees shall be deposited in the University Archives, and shall be available for examination by any interested individual(s).
