2.Experience:

A. Academic:

Health Systems Leader MSN Track Coordinator, Auburn University at Montgomery
Month Year- Present

Assistant Clinical Professor, Auburn University at Montgomery
July 2023- Present

In this role, I am responsible for teaching Nursing Care of the Adult I and other courses as appropriate for the needs of the department. This course requires organization and implementation of various teaching styles as there are three unique components including theory, lab, and clinical experiences. I work with adjunct faculty in acute care facilities to ensure our scholars are meeting and/or exceeding performance standards as required by our accrediting bodies. As a member of the SON faculty, I work with various committees and subcommittees to evaluate, develop, and implement policies as necessary. On the Scholarship and Awards committee for the SON I serve as the secretary. For the University, I serve as a faculty representative on AUM's Committee on Discipline. As the MSN

Health Systems Leader track coordinator I oversee the MSN plan of study, the scholars for each co-hort, and the faculty team for ongoing success and accreditation purposes.

Adjunct Faculty, Auburn University at Montgomery

August 2018- May 2020

As Adjunct Faculty, I facilitated and guided the clinical experience for nursing students preparing to obtain their Bachelor's degree and professional licensure. Responsibilities include overseeing students in skill implementation such as assessments, IV starts and other invasive procedures, medication administration, pre- and post- clinical classroom education, and evaluation of clinical performance.
